

ANIMAL CAGES AND CARRIERS

Transfer, Top Opening and End Opening Cages

Cages are built from heavy duty galvanized wire mesh with reinforcement rods welded to the frame for added strength. They also feature sheet metal hand protectors under each handle. And they have galvanized removable floor pans for easy cleaning. They are strong, durable, and easy to use and transport animals. We offer a variety of sizes in three categories. The categories include transfer cages, top opening cages, and end opening cages.

Transfer Cages

One entire end of these cages is a sliding door designed especially for easy transfer of animals from a "Easy Release" trap. Our transfer cages are built to specific sizes that match traps with easy release doors. Simply line up the door end of the cage with the easy release door of your trap, and pull the release doors up and out of the way. After the animal is moved to the cage, replace the door and latch into place. Your trap can now be redeployed.

Top Opening Cages

The entire top of these cages is a swinging door for placing animals in and out of the cage.

End Opening Cages

One entire end of these cages is a swinging door for placing animals in and out of the cage.

ANIMAL CAGES AND CARRIERS

Restraint Modules and Squeeze Cages

Restraint Modules

Restraint Modules are specifically designed for easy handling of animals during injections, examinations, or anytime absolute control of the animal is a must. The sliding panel locks into any position the handler desires, and will comfortably hold the animal. The restraint module can be operated with one hand and only requires one individual to operate. Heavy reinforcing rods are welded to the wire frame for extra support, and a sliding rear door allows for easy transferring of animals. Our restraint modules match up nicely to our traps and cages with easy release doors.

Cat Den/Animal Carrier & Disposable Pet Carriers

Cat Den/Animal Carrier

These units provide animals a quiet place to hide within larger holding cages. They can also be used as transfer cages as they match up nicely to the back of our TNR traps and cages.

Our cat handlers are easy to disinfect as there are no nuts or bolts protruding into the inside of the unit. They have an acrylic sliding door to allow handlers to check on animals without disturbing them. And they have a porthole door with flip down cover. Simply close the porthole door to secure the animal inside, then remove the unit from the cage for cleaning, treatment, or transport.
